

Lonely Planet Florida

AUTHOR'S CHOICE

PASHA'S

900 Lincoln Rd.

Page 126

Pasha's (meals $3 - $10; Lunch and dinner)
Design District (Map p-78; 305-572-1150;
3801 N Miami Avenue); Downtown (Map pp
76-7; 305-416-5116; 1414 Brickell Avenue);
South Beach (Map pp 72-3; 305-673-3919;
900 Lincoln Road)

Pasha's is the brain-child of a serious self-promoter by the looks of it, a sleek, two-level, healthy fast food emporium that has the owner's name everywhere you look. Not to mention piles of glossy brochures touting his clean-food philosophy. No matter; the food at Pasha's rocks, and the eateries' locations tend to pop up right when you most need them. Pick one, and state yourself with a quick and delicious labneh (thick yogurt) or grilled vegetable wrap, a plate of tabbouleh and hoummus or some grilled chicken served over rice. It's all top-notch, and the interior feels as hip as a club.